Covisian participates in Apexo marathon

Covisian Group, a multinational company dedicated to making people's lives easier through advanced customer experience services, participated on May 28th in the 12th marathon organized by the Peruvian Association of Customer Experience (APEXO).

The event, during which one of Covisian's participants finished second in the men's 5K category, took place in the amphitheater of the Aros Olímpicos in San Borja, where hundreds of families, accompanied by friends and even pets, gathered to enjoy themselves.

"We are happy to have participated in a sporting and family event where, in addition to having fun, we reinforce the values of unity and teamwork. Without a doubt, this is an enriching experience for all participants," says César López, Covisian's Head of Strategic Development and CEO of Covisian Iberia and Latam.

It should be noted that in this edition there were: two circuits (one 5 k and one 10 k) and several initiatives aimed at stimulating the teams' imagination and creativity.
