

PRESS RELEASE

Stefano Borrromeo new Chief Commercial Officer

Covisian Group has appointed Stefano Borrromeo as its new Chief Commercial Officer.

Joining the board of directors in his new role, Borrromeo will be responsible for implementing the group's commercial strategy at an international level (Italy, Spain and Latam) with delegated powers for market development and will report directly to Gabriele Moretti, President of Covisian Group. The appointment is in line with the Group's international growth strategy.

Stefano, former CEO of Galup Italia, has held CEO positions in companies such as Bianco SpA, Mec Diesel SpA and Emmenti, where he has demonstrated solid experience, determination, enthusiasm and teamwork skills, all of which are necessary for his new role in Covisian's business development.
